US Chamber of Commerce Rolls Out Red Carpet for Tunisian Embassy and Fancy Food Show Participants

Johnson City, TN—The US Chamber of Commerce is hosting a reception to honor Tunisia’s embassy and celebrate its olive oil producers during the Fancy Food Show on Monday evening, July 11 at 6PM at the US Chamber of Commerce offices.

Tunisia, originators of the Arab Spring or Jasmine Revolution, will be represented by the Ministries of Commerce and Finance, the Tunisian Embassy in the US, and Packtec—the organization promoting 100% Tunisian olive oil to the US. A group of Tunisia’s premier olive oil producers who are exhibiting at this year’s Fancy Food Show in Washington, DC will also be present to answer questions and offer samples of their extraordinary oils.

“This is a wonderful opportunity and we’re so grateful to the US Chamber of Commerce for hosting the event,” says Lémia Chekir Thabet, executive director of Packtec. “It’s a chance for people to learn more about Tunisia, its olive oil, and meet the people who work so hard to make this crop that we’re so proud of.”

Space is limited, and those interested in attending should secure their space as soon as possible.
